Mark W. Wasmund joined Mackenzie Hughes in 2010 as a partner in the business department. He focuses on all aspects of real estate transactions, representing buyers, sellers and lending institutions in both commercial and residential transactions. Mark's practice includes extensive work in landlord/tenant matters. He acts as examining counsel for several title insurance providers, and counsels clients in the formation of business entities and the purchase and sale of closely held businesses. He provides counsel on a wide range of licensing matters and represents clients before administrative agencies.

Mark lives in Fabius with his wife, Maryam. In his spare time, he enjoys coaching and playing basketball. He has been the volunteer assistant varsity boys basketball coach for Fabius Pompey since 2002 and has coached AAU basketball for Central Western at many age levels. When not otherwise involved, he tries to follow the endeavors of his quadruplets who have graduated from Hobart William Smith College or visiting his older son who resides in Cambridge, MA.
