

LAW

BARRY M. SHULMAN

has rejoined Mackenzie Hughes LLP as a partner in the firm's business department. He has nearly 50 years of experience practicing law. Shulman previously worked for Mackenzie Hughes early in his career, the firm says. He also served as counsel to the New York State Senate Judiciary Committee under Senator John H. Hughes. In that role, he helped author laws to protect both landlords and tenants and also drafted the legislation that enabled the creation of the Central New York Regional Transportation Authority. Shulman was president of the Scolaro Law Firm from 1979-2013 and of counsel to Gilberti Stinziano Heintz & Smith, P.C. from 2013-2016, according to his LinkedIn page. Shulman holds a juris doctorate from Cornell University and a bachelor's degree in economics from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania. He has been admitted to practice law in New York, the U.S. District Court Northern District of New York, and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Shulman