Mackenzie Hughes Seminar to Focus on Social Media and the Workplace as well as Forthcoming 2019 Employment Law Issues

Social media platforms, such as Facebook and Twitter, are used by employees both within and outside the workplace, posing a variety of potential risks for employers.

During the next Labor Law Review seminar, Mackenzie Hughes labor law attorneys will discuss the various laws and other issues that arise with respect to social media use and the workplace. In addition, the attorneys will identify some important employment law issues to watch for in 2019.
